RAVENI FARMS

It is with a mingled feeling of satisfaction and responsibility that we cordially welcome you to our Fourth Annual Sale to be held June 8th, 1938. We appreciate your support and consideration in the past and we want to maintain that relationship by again offering a lot of cattle that is worthy. We think we are offering the present day type of cattle through our Browndale Blood. This strain of breeding has not only justified its high position in the show ring in the past, but continues to do so. So we again hope to merit your consideration with this offering.

Yours truly,

EARL E. ROBBINS

T. DORSEY JONES

Browndale Pilot—The Improver

BROWNDALÉ PILOT, bred by that master cattleman James Douglas of Caledonia, Ontario, had that certain something that was needed for the advancement of Short-horn standards in this country. It was through the vision of T. Dorsey Jones that this blood was made easily available to breeders of this country. Browndale Pilot, through matings with the wonderful females in the Raveni Herd, has moulded each calf to perfection and passed on to his progeny character and quality equalled by but few sires in the history of the breed. It is indeed fortunate that the owner of Browndale Pilot and the owner of his International grand champion son, Raveni Masterpiece, are so located as to make this annual sale possible.

Browndale Commander 1812072—The best story is not always told by pictures, pleasing and appealing, nor by show ring victories, merited and impressive as they may be and valuable as a measure to the breeding ability of a sire. The best story is, what others have done with sons of "Browndale Pilot" those who have put them to work in their own herds. Time tells of the improvement worked by them, whenever and wherever used, they have achieved that improvement so much sought after by the progressive breeder. Browndale Commander needs no introduction. Given an opportunity in a larger herd than we have here, he will make Shorthorn history.

Browndale Conqueror 1912614—This bull is the product of the "Perfect Niche" and truly one of the best. He would show in the Junior yearling class this year and considering his thickness, masculinity, good head, dark roan color, set on short sturdy legs, he will be hard to reckon with. Remember his dam was sired by the great show and breeding bull, Browndale Star, and that she was a show animal, and at sometime during the show circuit defeated every animal in her class. This same Lovely family also produced last year's International Junior Champion bull, Browndale Cumberland, that is now so highly prized in the famous Maxwalton herd. If you want to own a really good bull that will add prestige to your herd, buy this outstanding representative of the Browndale Star-Browndale Pilot cross.
